

Professor Julio Francisco Dantas de Rezende (Natal-Brazil - 1974) is Bachelor in Management and Psychology, masters and PhD in Management at the Universidade Federal do Rio Grande do Norte (UFRN). Rezende is engaged with projects related to sustainable development of semiarid regions. He is acting in sustainable construction in communities.

Julio Rezende has published books and research about sustainability and innovation teaching at the Universidade Federal do Rio Grande do Norte (UFRN) at the Industrial Engineering Department.

Rezende is vice-president of the Management Council in Brazil, operational manager of business incubator of Center of Technology of UFRN (TECNATUS) and performs lectures in different countries about sustainability, innovation and management in english and spanish.

More information about professor Julio Rezende: www.juliorezende.blogspot.com.